

Name: _____

Directions: Use one of the FWARPS words for each sentence.

Food Water Air Reproduce Protection Shelter

1. The willow tree  gets its _____ by being located next to the pond .

2. The crayfish  gets its _____ by searching in the mud.

3. The crayfish  also digs a burrow  in the mud for _____ from predators.

4. The cattail plants  need sun, air, and _____ to grow.

5. The beaver  gets to make its _____ with all of the fallen branches  in this ecosystem.

6. The man  gets his _____ by fishing in the stream next to the waterfall .

7. The salmon  swims upstream  to find just the right spot to lay her eggs  and _____ baby salmon .

Name: _____

Directions: Use one of the FWARPS words for each sentence.

F ood	W ater	A ir	R eproduce	P rotection	S helter

1. The woodpecker  gets its _____ by pecking into the tree bark looking for insects  to eat.

2. The pine tree  gets the _____ it needs because its roots  soak it up.

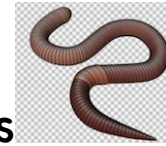

3. The owl sits high in the tree branch for _____ from other animals and humans .

4. The badger is probably looking for earthworms

, squirrels

and other small prey for _____.

5. The logger is cutting down the tree to use for making a _____ for people .

6. The mountain lion is most likely out hunting for _____.

Ecosystem Journal: Oceans & Coral Reefs (Part 2 Day 4)

Name: _____

Directions: Use one of the FWARPS words for each sentence.

Food

Water

Air

Reproduce

Protection

Shelter

1. Kelp forests

provide _____ for fish

and urchins

2. The people on the boat

fish for _____

to feed many other people

3. These tuna fish  swim together for _____ from sharks  and other predators.

4. Dolphins  often swim in pods . This helps them find a mate more easily so that they can _____ and keep the species around.

5. Eelgrass  helps to provide _____ for sea animals, like  crabs and prawns  to eat.

6. This orange sea star  clings to the rocky bottom for _____ from ocean waves .

Name: _____

Directions: Use one of the FWARPS words for each sentence.

Food

Water

Air

Reproduce

Protection

Shelter

1. The dense spines of the barrel cactus  gives the plant _____ from animals.

2. The scorpion  uses its stinger to catch its prey, such as the kangaroo rat , for _____.

3. The roadrunner  never needs to drink _____ because its gets enough to drink from the insects , reptiles , and fruits  it eats.

4. When it's time to _____ and make baby tortoises , the desert tortoise  lays its eggs  in a burrow  .

5. Many animals, such as the roadrunner  or scorpion  eat the kangaroo rat  for _____ to survive.